FIRST GIFT | 13 ENTRIES FOR
MUSEUM OPENED | FAIRMOUNT RACE

By J. C. KERRISON.

Tip to state only thirteen entries have been received for the Fairmont Park race, as they make up in quality of cars and drivers what they lack in quantity it should be a good race. As the course is said to be in fine condition, it is probable that the entries will be hung up.

The entries are: The Zeigle, last year's winner, in a National; Grant and Wilson, in Loziers; a Benz, driven by Phil Bergdoll; a Mercedes, driven by Smart; and a Fiat, which Lee Oulford drove down to drive, and which some other driver will probably pilot in the race.

This is a song of the Son of Man,
Who was once the lord and master
In an ancient day e'er Woman's way
His rule brought to disaster.
But hearken to me, and I speak the truth
I have known it true from my very youth
I idolize Her and Her tasks I prize,
And I would not have it otherwise!
